

The True Burden

By Evelyn Ward

“One night I had a dream. It was about a friend who was having a financial problem. Her burden was so heavy on me. It was so real to me. In the dream I told her “Do what you have to do.” I could not help her. I awakened so troubled.

I called my friend and asked her how she was doing. She said she was fine.

I went before the Lord in prayer and found the eyes of my understanding enlightened. The dream was false, the burden was false. The enemy had tricked me many times like this before with false burdens and guilt. My feelings had deceived me also. I chose God’s Word over my feelings. I willed myself to agree with whatever God’s Word was on this issue. I will trust In Him for myself and others, because Jesus and The Completed Work of His Cross has delivered us from darkness and received us into His Kingdom of Light.

By the Greater Grace of God, from this time on the Lord has opened my spiritual eyes to discerning of spirits. I see and understand the True from the false burdens more clearly as I go along now.

They All go into Jesus and The Completed Work of His Cross... prayerfully.

Now I am seeing Christ be formed In me, and in others. A new respect has developed with this insight.

Thank you Lord, I Love you. Evelyn.”
